About the Book

Julius Falconer releases detective murder mystery fiction with a delightfully teasing and ingenious plot, laced with comments on life and revenge.

From the top of the stairs, a little girl of five overhears an argument in the sitting-room below, between her father and a late-night visitor. Frightened and uncertain she dared not descend the staircase but sat trembling at the top, unable to return to bed. Her father is killed. She did not see the killer and cannot remember clearly the content of the conversation, but she remembers the killer's voice.

Twenty years later she recognises the voice, identifies its owner and sets out to take her revenge...
