About the Book

A heart warming fictional story of courage and determination, love and loss in rural England

The new Treasurer of the Brook Breasting Fete Committee the Reverend Rolf James has discovered an anomaly in the accounts. He calls for an Extraordinary General Meeting. Is there a villain to unmask?

Chapter by chapter, we see the lives of the main characters in this book held up to close scrutiny.

Author John White brings this story to life with a cast of unforgettable characters in an inspiring tale of courage and resolve, love and loss.

On the outside, Brook Breasting is a picturesque English village. On the inside, it has the characters that make it uniquely, Brook Breasting.
