About the Book

Julius Falconer releases a new detective thriller with a tightly-woven, deft and thought-provoking plot that will keep you guessing right till the end.

It is August 1974. A respected teacher at a private girls' school in rural Worcestershire, Adrian Carrick, physically attracted to one of the Sixth-Form leavers, discloses his feelings for her. Convinced that he has mishandled their final meeting, he writes her a letter of regret and then kills himself by leaping over the edge of a quarry. The coroner's verdict is suicide while the balance of his mind is disturbed.

Not all is as it appears, however, and Inspector Wickfield is called in to take a look.
