About the Book

A collection of hilarious and not so hilarious yarns to make you laugh and cringe

This book is a sequel to Chris Pownall's hilarious autobiography entitled "Funny How Things Work Out".

"Onwards and Upwards" comes highly recommended for those interested in social history and anyone keen to know how life was in the mid 20th century in comparison to the present day. Readers will be amazed at the diversity of subjects covered in this book and some of the stories will undoubtedly bring back memories to those of a certain age, whilst younger readers will hopefully appreciate the opportunities that Chris has experienced and relished throughout his happy and fulfilling life.
