About the Book

Yomi Akinpelu tackles the most difficult questions on the subject of healing.

This book is for those who have questions and need answers. The Wholesome Truth about Healing was initiated as a result of a question; "Does God desire perfect health for all? If He does, why are some healed and others not healed"? ...This book may well be the most thought-provoking and helpful presentation of this controversial subject you ever read. Evidence from medical research and real life testimonies of God's healing power are superbly woven together with scriptural...
