About the Book

Julius Falconer releases a tightly-woven, deft and thought-provoking novel in the best traditions of British detective fiction.

Inspector Wickfield and Sergeant Hewitt find themselves caught up in a saga of murder, illicit money-making and racist thuggery. A young girl's body is found one morning on the banks of a canal.

The trail leads the investigating officers to London, Reading and Augsburg. They find themselves mixing with butchers, decorators, fashion retailers etc. As always with Julius Falconer, you, the reader, are given all the information available to the detective officers, and the vital clue is there for you to spot - if you are up to it! Keep your eye on the ball if you can! You are guaranteed a stimulating read.
